Hope for the Best. Oh, why should we ever be shading Moments of pleasure with pain? Though the rose we have cherished be fading

Time will bring other roses again! Though Fate may our destinies severe— Though for a brief season deprest— Trusting in Providence ever, Still-let us hope for the best.

There's a star ever burning above us, Still shining for happier days; There's a spirit that ever will love us, Beaming beyond that star's ray's! Though for a time we may suffer, Clasp this deep truth to thy brest— Trusting in Providence ever— Come what there may—ir is BEST!
